

Program Overview & Learning Objectives

Assembly Title: Voices for Good Choices

Grades: K–6

Presenters: Mark Beckwith & Obediah Thomas (Razzle Bam Boom)

Program Length: Approx. 45 minutes

Program Overview:

Voices for Good Choices is an interactive, character education assembly that brings essential values like respect, kindness, teamwork, safety, and perseverance to life—starring the students themselves. During this high-energy program, professional presenters Mark Beckwith and Obediah Thomas guide over 20 student volunteers through improvisational scenes and role-plays that explore real-world choices and consequences in a safe, supportive, and entertaining environment.

The dynamic nature of the show means each performance is unique, driven by the spontaneity and creativity of the student participants. This makes Voices for Good Choices not only memorable but personally meaningful to everyone involved—on stage and off. The program reinforces school-wide behavioral expectations while promoting a culture of responsibility, cooperation, and empathy.

Learning Objectives:

By the end of the assembly, students will be able to:

- Recognize and model respectful behavior toward peers, adults, and themselves.
- Understand how small acts of kindness contribute to a positive school climate.
- Identify safe behaviors and make responsible choices in everyday situations.
- Demonstrate effective teamwork and collaboration skills in group settings.
- Describe the importance of perseverance and how to stay motivated when facing challenges.
- Reflect on how their choices affect others and how to be a positive influence in their school community.

Bonus:

Teachers may follow up with classroom discussions, journaling prompts, or behavior-based reward systems tied to the five themes explored in the assembly.
